Enjoy a relaxing evening “Letting the horse take the strain”

We head from our pickup points directly to The Tiverton Wharf on The Grand Western Canal. We have time before departure to meet the horse. You will then board The “Tivertonian” which is a 75 seater Horse Drawn barge one of the last remaining Horse-Drawn Barges in the UK for a truly unique and memorable experience. For those of us who are always on the go this is the perfect way to slow down and sit back and let something else take the strain! We have a 2 ½ hr return trip which includes a fish and chip supper, travelling to East Manley where the barge turns around and the horse takes a well-earned rest before returning to our starting point. On the journey we are told memorable tales, anecdotes and historical facts about the Horse-Drawn Barge and the Grand Western Canal. The barge has a bar where you can purchase a drink or two, souvenirs and polos for the pony whilst enjoying the scenery and the peace and quiet.
