CHRISTMAS AT COTEHELE

We head directly to Cotehele with a comfort stop on route for you to enjoy all that Cotehele at Christmas has to offer. Cotehele is famous for its Christmas Garland which has been a tradition for over 60 years. The hall was first decorated during the 1950's for a staff celebration. That first garland was a simple but beautiful affair from a busy evergreen shrub called pittosporum. Since that first garland the gardening team at Cotehele create stunning displays of dried flowers with the preparations beginning in February each year. The staff start picking the flowers from late April and then dry them over the summer and autumn and then put together in November.

Cotehele is an atmospheric house with medieval roots, a working mill on a historic quay with a glorious garden with valley views to explore also. After you have finished admiring the Garland in the Great Hall why not explore the rest of Cotehele which was built during medieval times. The house which is a hotchpotch of architect has a chapel which has a turret clock which has no dial or even hands, it simply strikes the hour on a bell in the chapel roof. There is an impressive collection of tapestries, armour and fine oak furniture from the Georgian era.
